

Head Coach Women High Performance Sport 50%

We are a family, innovative sporting association in the Swiss sports world. Our success is based on the combination of passion and performance. Our national teams play on an international level in the field. We participate in European Championships, World Championships and Olympic Qualifications on a high level.

On 01.04.2018 or by appointment, we are looking for a

Head Coach Women High Performance Sport 50% (another 50% employment in a hockey club can be arranged)

Your tasks

- Independent leadership, coaching and training of the women's national team
- Responsible for the organizational and administrative planning and implementation of the training measures with the involvement of the team manager
- Creation of the annual goals in close cooperation with the head of high performance sports and the person in charge of high performance sport on the board
- Athletic annual periodisation of the team in collaboration with the Cantonal Hospital in Lucerne
- Annual planning including cost budget in collaboration with the chief high performance sport
- Creation and implementation of a training concept for all national teams male including the FTEM concept of Swiss Olympic (Foundation, Talent, Elite, Mastery)
- Participation in training sessions and courses of other female teams in consultation with the chief high performance sport and the responsible Youth high performance
- Contact with the other national team and club coaches
- Analysis of the results achieved and presentation to the club coaches in the context of further education

Your profile

- Trainer certificate expert / junior trainer J + S or adequate foreign trainer education
 - Hockey knowledge or experience as a player / coach in High performance Hockey
 - High social and self-competence
 - Good MS Office skills
 - Stylish German in spoken and written or good knowledge of English. French language skills are an advantage
 - You are reliable, outgoing, team player and performance oriented.
 - A dedicated personality with the joy of a lively environment
 - Willingness to travel and training on evenings and weekends
-

- We expect a high degree of independence, organizational talent as well as efficient and punctual working methods
- Willingness to take up residence within Switzerland

Your chance

Swiss Hockey is an internationally active sports association. Our national team men, ladies, U21, U18, U16 take part successfully in the international competitions of the FIH and EHF in field and hall.

And now?

Send your application documents by e-mail to Paul Schneider, Managing Director of Swiss Hockey (paul.schneider@swisshockey.org) by 10.01.2018 at the latest. Of course, you can also contact him for further questions.

Kontaktadresse

Swiss Hockey

Paul Schneider

Grisigenstrasse 6

6048 Horw

0041 79 456 68 42

paul.schneider@swisshockey.org

www.swisshockey.org

Working Place

Switzerland
